

羅曼華 生命禮讚

今年1月15日我參加了一個名為「生命禮讚」的聚會。眼可見的「主角」是校友羅曼華('59)，其實真正的主角是她所相信、愛慕、敬拜、和事奉的神。這聚會是她以前的學生替她安排的，讓她能在被接返天家前能「享受」一下她與神合作的成果；也叫人得見神在她身上的作為，將榮耀歸於神。曼華於2006年被確診患上肺腺癌，當時群醫給她八個月的性命，那已是11年多前的事了。期間她以神給她的智慧，恆久、積極地以食療調理身體，「與癌共舞」！更難得的是她一直持守著從神來的呼召和異象，認定神祝福她的生命，為的是要藉她祝福萬民。數十年來言教身教，現在喜見有接班人，怪不得曼華當日笑不攏嘴。她送給每位赴會者一本《羅曼華生命禮讚》，由她自己及摯愛的親友、學生、主內弟兄姐妹執筆，分享曼華活出榮神益人的真諦，以生命影響生命。近日得悉她的身體狀況轉差，但她的心境仍是平靜安穩，歡喜快樂等待被接到榮耀裡，與主同在，好得無比！

Miss Evelyn Jenkins

Miss Evelyn Jenkins was sent by the London Missionary Society to teach History and English in Ying Wa in 1956, and became Deputy Headmistress in 1962, then Headmistress in 1967 on the retirement of Miss Vera Silcocks. She was Ying Wa's fifth headmistress.

Miss Jenkins was my headmistress when I was in Form 2. She retired and returned to her native England in 1972. I am lucky to have been able to keep in touch with her after 45 years through Miss Winnie Yau Ping Wai ('59) in Toronto. During one dinner meeting with the alumnae

Jenkins and met with her. Miss Jenkins now lives in a small town outside of London called Meopham, and her home is about 20 minutes' walk from the train station. She goes to St. John the Baptist Church every Sunday and she drives there herself. The church is only a few minutes from her home.

We had lunch together in a restaurant and she drove us there. She is doing quite well considering that she is now 86. She needs a cane to walk and has limited mobility. She has only 4 to 5 hours energy and our meeting had to be limited to less than 3 hours. She spends her other hours either lying in bed reading or sleeping.

After the visit, she wrote to me and said that she looks forward to my future visits. I plan to visit her whenever I go to London again to see my daughter. Miss Jenkins does not know anything about computer, so the old-fashioned way of writing to her is still the best way. I am sure she would enjoy receiving letters from her students.

in Toronto, Miss Yau told me that she regularly received Christmas cards from Miss Jenkins up to the recent years. Since my daughter is now working in London and I go to see her once or twice a year, I asked Miss Yau for Miss Jenkins' address so that I could plan a trip to see her.

In May this year, I was able to connect with Miss
